Brooklyn N.Y.

Dear Friend:

Just a line to tell you I am coming to Brooklyn Wednesday to get some tickets. The Simplex people are shipping my box seats to you Tuesday and they should be there Wednesday. I am planning to use some of your old tickets for general admission as before. Please have me about 100 of them, at the office.

We are planning to have a bond sale between games. Have a pair of Joe Louis gloves to give the highest bidder. There will be a couple speakers, and one of The Colored newspaper men will handle the program, so I will have to get together with man who handles the mike.

We are now one game behind The Homestead Grays, and play them in Newark this Sunday. It is too bad we looked so badly in Brooklyn.

The Cubans who play in Abbetts Field July 2nd, are also our opponents the 4th. In view of this fact I am asking your permission to announce our game over the loud speaker. The Cubans owner said he will insist on it if it is alright with you. I will call Wednesday morning to see what time you will be in the office. I am only writing so you will have the tickets there.

Very Truly Yours
